

A main break has been reported in the vicinity of 433 Durham Road. BCWSA crews are working on a repair. Customers in the area may experience discolored water or low water pressure. There is no need to boil your water. BCWSA thanks you for your patience and understanding while we perform these repairs.